5. Unfinished business.
6. New business.
7. Adjournment.

ARTICLE VIII

Directors and Officers

Section 1. The board of directors of this corporation shall consist of seven (7) members, all of whom shall be members of the corporation. The directors named in the articles of incorporation shall serve until the first annual meeting of the members and until their successors are elected and have qualified. At the first annual meeting of the members, two (2) directors shall be elected for a term of one (1) year; two (2) directors for a term of two (2) years; two (2) directors for a term of three (3) years; and one (1) director for a term of four (4) years. At each annual meeting thereafter, the members shall elect for a term of three (3) years, the number of directors whose terms of office have expired. Each director shall hold office for the term for which he is elected and until his successor shall have been elected and qualified. It is the intention of this corporation that the terms of no more than three (3) directors shall expire at the same time. The directors shall take whatever steps necessary to adjust the terms of the directors to accomplish this.

Section 2. The board of directors shall meet within ten (10) days after the first election and within ten (10) days after the annual election of directors and shall elect by ballot, a president and a vice president from among themselves and a secretary treasurer, each of whom shall hold office until the next annual meeting and until the election and qualification of his successor unless sooner removed by death, resignation or for cause.

Section 3. If the office of any director becomes vacant by reason of death, resignation, retirement, disqualification or otherwise, except by removal from office, a majority of the remaining directors, though less than a quorum shall, by a majority vote, choose a successor who shall hold office until the next regular meeting of the members of the corporation, at which time the members shall elect a director for the unexpired term or terms.

Section 4. A majority of the board of directors shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the board. The affirmative vote of the majority of the directors at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the board.

Section 5. Compensation of officers may be fixed at any regular or special meeting of the members of the corporation. Directors shall receive no compensation for their services as such.

Section 6. Officers and directors may be removed from office in the following manner: any member, officer or director may present charges against a director or officer by filing them in writing with the secretary of the corporation. If presented by a member, the charges must be accompanied by a petition signed by ten (10) percent of the members of the corporation. Such removal shall be voted on at the next regular or special meeting of the members. The directors or officers against whom such charges have been presented shall be informed, in writing, of such charges ten (10) days prior to the meeting, and shall have the opportunity at such meeting to be heard in person or by counsel and to present witnesses; and the person or persons presenting such charges against him shall have the same opportunity. If the removal of a director is approved, such action shall also vacate any other office held by the removed director in the association. A vacancy in any office thus created shall be filled by the directors from among their numbers so constituted after the vacancy in the board has been filled.

ARTICLE IX

Duties of Directors

Section 1. The board of directors, subject to restrictions of law, the articles of incorporation, and these by-laws, shall exercise all of the powers of the corporation, and without prejudice to or limitation upon their general powers; it is hereby expressly provided that the board of directors shall have, and are hereby given, full power and authority in respect to the matters and as hereinafter set forth:

- A. To pass upon the qualifications of members, and to cause to be issued appropriate certificates of membership.
- B. To select and appoint all officers, agents or employees of the corporation or remove such agents or employees of the corporation, for just cause, prescribe such duties and designate such powers as may not be inconsistent with these by-laws, fix their compensation and pay for faithful service.
- C. To borrow from any source, money, goods or service. To make and issue notes and other negotiable and transferable instruments, mortgages, deeds of trust and trust agreements and to do every act and thing necessary to effectuate the same.
- D. To prescribe, adopt and amend from time to time, such equitable uniform rules and regulations as, in their discretion, may be deemed essential or convenient for the conduct of business and affairs of the corporation and the guidance and control of its officers and employees, and to prescribe adequate penalties for the breach thereof.
- E. To order, at least once each year, an audit of the books and accounts of the corporation by a competent public auditor or accountant. The report prepared by such auditor or accountant shall be submitted to the members of the corporation at their annual meeting.
- F. To fix the charges to be paid by each member for services rendered by the corporation to him, the time of payment and the manner of collection.
- G. To require all officers, agents and employees charged with responsibility for the custody of any of the funds of the corporation to give adequate bonds, the cost thereof to be paid by the corporation, and it shall be mandatory upon the trustees to so require.
- H. To select one or more banks to act as depositories of the funds of the corporation and to determine the manner of receiving, depositing, and disbursing the funds of the corporation and the form of checks and the person or persons by whom the same shall be signed, with the power to change such banks and the person or persons signing such checks and the form thereof at will.

I. To levy assessments against the membership certificates of the corporation and to enforce the collection of such assessments by the forfeiture of delinquent certificates. The board of directors shall have the option to declare forfeited any membership certificate on which assessment has not been paid, at any time after ninety (90) days from the date the assessment was due, provided that the corporation must give the member at least thirty (30) days written notice at the address of the member on the books of the corporation, of its intention to forfeit the certificate if the assessment is not paid.

ARTICLE X

Duties of Officers

Section 1. Duties of president. The president shall preside over all meetings of the corporation and the board of directors, perform all acts and duties usually performed by an executive and presiding officer, and sign all membership certificates and such other papers of the corporation as he may be authorized or directed to sign by the board of directors, provided the board of directors may authorize in writing on behalf of the corporation. The president shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the board of directors.

Section 2. Duties of the Vice - President. In the absence of or disability of the president, the vice-president shall perform the duties of the president; provided, however, that in the case of death, resignation or disability of the president, the board of directors may declare the office vacant and elect his successor.

Section 3. Duties of the secretary-treasurer. The secretary-treasurer shall keep a complete record of all meetings of the corporation and of the board of directors and shall have general charge and supervision of the books and records of the association. He shall sign all membership certificates with the president and such other papers pertaining to the corporation as he may be authorized or directed to do so by the board of directors. He shall serve all notices required by law and by these by-laws and shall make a full report of all matters and business pertaining to his office to the members at the annual meeting. He shall keep the corporate seal and membership certificates, records of the corporation, complete and countersign all certificates issued and affix said corporate seal to all papers requiring seal. He shall make all reports required by law and shall perform such other duties as may be required of him by the corporation or the board of directors. Upon the election of his successor, the secretary-treasurer shall turn over to him all books and other property belonging to the corporation that he may have in his possession. He shall also perform such duties with respect to the finances of the corporation as may be prescribed by the board of directors.

ARTICLE XI

Benefits and duties of Members

Section 1. The corporation will install, maintain and operate a main distribution pipe line or lines from the source of the water supply and service lines from the main distribution pipe line or lines to the property line of each member of the corporation, at which points, designated as delivery points, meters to be purchased, installed, owned and maintained by the corporation shall be placed. The cost of the service line or lines from the main distribution pipe line or lines of the corporation to the property line of each member shall be paid by the corporation. The corporation will also purchase and install a cut off valve in each service line from its main distribution line or lines, such cut off valve to be owned and maintained by the corporation and to be installed on some portion of the service line owned by the corporation. The corporation shall have the sole and exclusive rights to use such cut off valve to turn on and off.

Section 2. Each member shall be entitled to not to exceed a reasonable number of service lines from the corporation's water system, provided that the member shall be required to pay the actual cost of installation for each line in excess of one. No new service line or change in an existing service line may be made which will interfere with an existing service line or the delivery of water therein. Each service line shall connect with the corporation's water system at the nearest available place or the place of desired use by the member, if the corporation's water system shall be of sufficient capacity to permit the delivery of water through a prior service line. If the corporation's water system shall be inadequate to permit the delivery of water through a service line installed at such place without interfering with the delivery of water through a prior service line, then such service line shall be installed at such place as may be designated by the corporation. Each member will be required to dig or have dug a ditch for the connection of the service line or lines from the property line of the member to his dwelling or other portion of his premises and will also be required to purchase and install the portion of the service line or lines from his property line to the place of use on his premises and to maintain such portion of such service line or lines which shall be owned by the member at his own expense, provided that the corporation may, if the board of directors so determines, purchase the pipe for and install such portion of such service line or lines, the cost of which will, however, be paid by the individual members.

Section 3. Each member shall be entitled to purchase from the corporation, pursuant to such agreements as may from time to time be provided and required by the corporation, such water for domestic, livestock, garden purpose, or other uses as a member may desire, subject, however, to the provisions of these by-laws and to such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the board of directors. Each member shall be entitled to have delivered to him through a single service line only such water as may be necessary to supply the needs of the persons residing in a single dwelling and of the livestock owned by such persons and to irrigate a garden or not to exceed three (3) acres. The water delivered through each service line shall be metered and the charges for such water shall be determined separately, irrespective of the number of service lines owned by the member.

Section 4. In the event the total water supply shall be insufficient to meet all the needs of all the members or in the event there is a shortage of water, the corporation may pro-rata the water available among the various members on such basis as is a schedule of hours covering use of water for garden purposes by particular members and require adherence thereto or prohibit the use of water for garden purposes; provided that if at any time the total water supply shall be insufficient to meet all the needs of all the members for domestic, livestock, or garden purposes, the corporation must first satisfy all of the needs of all the members for domestic purposes before supplying any water for livestock purposes and must satisfy all of the needs of all of the members for both domestic and livestock purposes before supplying any water for garden purposes.

Section 5. The board of directors shall determine the flat minimum monthly rate to be charged each member for a specified quantity of water, such flat minimum monthly rate to be payable irrespective of whether any water is used by a member during any month, and the amount of additional charges, if any, for additional water which may be supplied the members, shall fix the date for the payment of such charges, and shall notify each member of the amount of such charges and the dates for payment thereof. A member to be entitled to the delivery of water shall pay such charges at the office of the corporation at or prior to the dates fixed by the board of directors. The failure to pay water charges duly imposed shall result in the automatic imposition of the following penalties:

- A. Non-payment for thirty (30) days after due. The water shall be cut off from the delinquent member's property.
- B. Non-payment for sixty (60) days. Membership in the corporation shall be terminated.

Section 6. The board of directors shall be authorized to require each member to enter into a water user agreement. Which shall embody the principles set forth in the foregoing sections of this article.

ARTICLE XII

Disposition of Surplus Funds

Section 1. It is not anticipated that there will be any surplus funds or net income to the corporation at the end of the fiscal year after provisions are made for the payment of the expense of operation and maintenance and the funding of the various reserves for depreciation, debt retirement, and other purposes, including those required by the terms of any borrowing transaction. The occurrence in subsequent fiscal years of surplus funds or net income above the requirements of the corporation as above mentioned, including, if any, a reserve for improvements and extensions of the facilities shall be taken into consideration by the board of directors in determining the water rate to be charged the members.

Section 2. The organization will provide services substantially at cost. Dividends shall not be paid on the basis of membership or shares of stock in the organization. All funds from whatever sources remaining at the end of the year in excess of those needed to meet current losses and expenses will be distributed to members in proportion to the amount of business done by them during the year subject to concurrence of the Farmers Home Administration or will be retained for such purposes as retiring indebtedness incurred in acquiring assets, expanding the organization's services, maintaining reserves for necessary purposes or reducing subsequent years water rates. However, the organization will maintain records from which each member's rights and interest in the retained funds and assets acquired with such funds in proportion to the member's business with the organization can be determined at any time. Required records for this purpose include financial records that show the organization's revenues from all sources for each year and records, such as bills or receipts, showing the amount of each member's business annually with the organization.

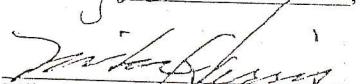

ARTICLE XIII

Amendments

Section 1. These by-laws be repealed or amended by a majority of the members present at any regular meeting of the corporation, or at any special meeting of the corporation called for that purpose, except that the members shall not have the power to change the purpose of the corporation as to decrease its rights and powers under the laws of the state, or to waive any requirements of bond or other provisions for the safety and security of the property and funds of the corporation or its members, or to deprive any member of rights and privileges then existing, or act to amend the by-laws as to effect a fundamental change in the policies of the corporation. Notice of any amendment to be made at a special meeting of the members must be given at least ten (10) days before such meeting and must set forth the amendments to be considered.

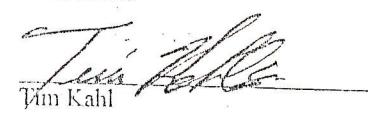

We certify that the foregoing by-laws were duly adopted by the members on the 21 day of April, 2003, as amended and that the same are in full force.

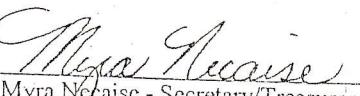

Given under our hands and the seal of the corporation, this 19 day of August, 2003.
